Dear Naomi

Thank you for your letter dated 28th April the content of which is noted.

We will again reiterate the Joint Unions' position that we do not believe this negotiation is concluded until full and frank negotiations have taken place. The Joint Unions strongly believe the necessary process has not been followed to conclude negotiations in a business-like manner, including dealing with every element of the claim.

Your comment relating to a joint approach to government has been duly noted and we await further update on this.

We urge the Employers' Side to consider re-entering negotiations to conclude this pay claim.

Looking forward to hearing from you

Yours sincerely
